1) Scope of Practice Issues in Interventional Pain Management
2) ASC Payment Reform 2010 and Beyond
3) Physician Payment Reform 2010 and Beyond
4) Health Policy and Ethics
5) Influence of Guidelines on Health Policy: Should Guidelines Be on Trial?
6) Research in Interventional Pain Management
7) A Critical Analysis of Industry Sponsorship of Chronic Pain Management
8) Industry Relationship to Interventional Pain Management Practice: Compliance with Regulations
9) Fraud and Abuse in Interventional Pain Management
10) Compliance in Interventional Pain Management
11) Role of Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) in Interventional Pain Management
12) Influence of Stark and Anti-Kickback Statutes in Practice of Interventional Pain Management
13) Documentation in Interventional Pain Management
14) Evolution of CPT Coding in Interventional Pain Management
15) Over-utilization: Is it a Perfect Storm or a Volcano?
16) Coding for Interventional Techniques
17) Informed Consent: Practical and Ethical Issues
18) Influence of National Drug Control Strategy
19) Influence of Prescription Monitoring Programs on Chronic Pain Management
20) Getting Involved in Shaping the Health Policy and Regulations in Interventional Pain Management: Role of Professional Organizations and Practitioners
21) Competency Certification in Interventional Pain Management: Is the Present System Adequate?
22) Educational Programs in Interventional Pain Management: Do We Need a Separate Residency?

23) The Role of Medical Licensure Boards, DEA, and Other Organizations in Health Policy Regulation

24) Health Policy Issues Related to Medical Liability

26) Competency Evaluations and Reporting

27) Medicare Advantage: Are Some Being Disadvantaged?

28) Comprehensive Regulation for Future of Interventional Pain Management

29) EMRs in Interventional pain management: Do they Improve Patient Care?

30) Evaluation and Management Services in Interventional Pain Management: Improving Documentation, Patient Care and Reimbursement

31) Independent Medical Evaluations: Facts and Fallacies